

Florida Keys Fishing Reports from the Ladies in Islamorada February 2015

Joan Vandergriff and Susan Gros after fishing the Swamp Guides Ball Tournament they spent two days fishing with Captain Richard Black in Everglades National Park. They caught lots of Redfish and Spotted Sea Trout on light tackle using both spin and fly. Besides the fact that they were fishing and spent a couple days in paradise the ladies really enjoyed their trip to Islamorada and had a blast with Captain Black.

After fishing the Poor Girls Sailfish Tournament and putting together the Swamp Guides Tournament Betsy Bullard was able to get out on the water for some much needed bow time with Angie Lucas and Captain Bou Bosso. The ladies were fishing in Biscayne Bay when Betsy was able to sight fish and catch one hooter of a bonefish, topping the scales at 11 pounds, what a fish! Congratulations Betsy!!

Anne Newcomb fished with her son and Captain Dave Denkert back in January on a cool breezy day and had a good bite of nice sized snook and redfish in Everglades National Park.
